

Wendover to Halton towpath upgrade - grand opening Friday 28th June 2024 10am to 3pm

Robbie Cumming of BBC 4's Canal Boat Diaries to cut the ribbon near Walnut Tree Meadow at 1pm

- A community celebration of the upgrading of this towpath
- To be held on the last day of John Colet's 'Focus Week'
- Stalls in Walnut Tree Meadow
- Teddy bears' picnic, treasure trail, nature trail worksheet and 'passport' for pupils of Wendover Church of England Junior School
- Talks by experts on water safety, environment and ecology
- Talks at sites of particular interest along the towpath
- Stop-off points at heritage sites, with experts on hand
- Kayakers and paddleboarders along the canal
- A trumpet fanfare for the ribbon cutting
- Morris dancing by local group Cracklewick Morris
- Pizzas and coffees available to purchase in Walnut Tree Meadow
- Join where you like: at Wendover HP22 6HF, Halton HP22 5NS or anywhere in-between for a celebratory walk
- A continuous flow of John Colet's pupils walking along the towpath
- No entry charge for the event, minibus available on request
- Toilets at John Colet School, Walnut Tree Meadow & Halton Village Hall.

All welcome! Bring your family and friends!

Organisers: John Colet School, Wendover News, Wendover and Halton Parish Councils, EKFB and Wendover Canal Trust. The above may be adapted up to the day.

